

This is to certify that

Angelo Gabriel Pangalos

has been awarded the

Jameson Prize

The Jameson Prize was founded in 1935 by Alexander Hope Jameson, Professor of Civil Engineering in the College from 1912 to 1935. It is awarded to the student who has achieved the second best performance in the first year Single Honours examinations.

11 October 2004

at the

School of Physical Sciences & Engineering

King's College London

Professor Colin J Bushnell
Head of the School of Physical Sciences & Engineering
King's College London

Student Number: